FROM THE NEST

March is an important month at our school with ELPAC testing and Spring Conferences. Daily attendance is essential so students can show what they know, make academic progress, and participate in important assessments. Being at school each day helps build confidence, maintain routines, and ensures students don't miss valuable learning time. Please make every effort to have your child at school on time and ready to learn each day!

AFTER SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

No after school classes during conferences or Spring Break.

FUN FACT!

March is the only month named after a Roman god – Mars, the Roman god of strength and courage! In ancient Rome, March marked the start of the new year because it symbolized new beginnings and fresh starts. 🌱 Kind of perfect for spring, right? Fresh growth, fresh goals, fresh energy.

RECOMMENDED

In The Tiny Seed by Eric Carle, a small seed travels through changing seasons and overcomes challenges before finally growing into a beautiful flower. This gentle story reminds us that growth takes time, patience, and perseverance — just like learning. 🌱
